took its tip from the fluctuations and 25 to 1 was on tap against the seedy Wilson representative.

quite on a par with the inconsistent races of Sir Toddington and Juggier.

Athlete got away in front with the strides of a quarter horse and remained there all the way to the end. Romp describes the character of his finish.

Oblicular got second money easily from Dishabille, who undoubtedly would have done better but force michael. Dishabille, who undoubtedly would have done better but for a mishap. The mare, getting off in the hind end of the bunch, cut down Tartan at the second eighth from the start, throwing the latter out of the race, Brussell pulling up and retiring the suffering animal. Dishabille was lengths out of the race on the back stretch but coming on gamely get third money easily.

The third resulted in a win for E. R. Thomas's Stable, Laura Clay, the candidate, coming from behind as if she liked it the further they went, and "copped" by a scant length. Bl.e Heron was second, before Rustle, with Masks and Faces desperately trying to overhand the Cells filly in the gap dividing the two divisions. Givenni Rag gle threw his boy and ran away.

Red River Wins.

Red River Wins.

Red River had the foot of the sprinters in the fourth, getting off in front and opening a gap of half a dozen lengths, and keeping the gap aim to the end. And Red River, at twenties, was a tip among a select few, while hundreds of supposed wise players also had a hot tip on Superman, from the Keene barn, which finished second. Superman had worked his "eye halls out ip a trial, and was backed to evens confidently for a great plunge. Handwarrs, second choice, a winner yesterday, was in this contest, but finished nowhere. LaLonde, at any odds, hishing third. The three-quarters was the fastest run at the meeting—1.12 flat.

Marathon Romped In.

Marathon Romped In. gMarathon was the racer his price in the betting-ring betokened to-day. He just played with the indifferent bunch he was called upon to meet in the sec-ond mile-and-a-sixteenth event of the day and landed the coin for the Cellas nicely.

He had to be good to win at that, well, trainers, owners, jockeys and a few bookies "in the know" may explain how Athlete came to life to-day, winning the second race in a common gailop, but the poor deluded public came not reconcile the showing of the Burlew colt of to-day with his last performance.

Athlete might just as well have been a 10 to 1 shot for all he figured, for in the race won by Heasilp at Aqueduct, Athlete was beaten also by Works, maid, Hyperion and St. Valentine, the latter five lengths in front of the Burlew home. It might have appeared too giaring or disgraceful to have had him beaten by Roland, the only other entered the inconsistent races of Sir Toddington and Justfert.
